Updates/New Business:

Kirsten proposed Lynn Binkley to judge the May 8 show. Judging fee of $225 and $100 for gas.
Approval by consensus. Kirsten and Angelique proposed that the annual meeting be held on the lunch break at the May 8 show. This is late in the year but Covid has made an annual meeting challenging.
Unanimous approval.

Fall show, October 2 judge is Michelle Combs. $250 judging fee and expenses

Angelique to contact Iron Horse Grill Food Truck for both the Spring and Fall shows.

Kirsten: 2020 membership count was 53. ADA has not sent current membership for 2021

Ann's update on Western Equitation Clinic and clinician:

Manuel Trigo fees are expensive. Discussion of fees other clinicians may charge including Amy Starr.
No budget was set for the Western Equitation Clinic. Tessa Nicolet is the clinician for the CVEP WE clinics. Ann & Kay will search for a weekend for a working equitation clinic. Potential format will be dressage on Saturday and a Sunday obstacle show.

Traci will create a budget for 2021.

Carol Land submitted a resignation letter from her board position to Kirsten. Unanimous approved to accept Carol's resignation. Kirsten will send a thank you card to Carol for her service. Kay will thank Carol on NAC Facebook and web pages.

Vonnie Jacobson will assume Carol's duties including education and contracts.

Kirsten will continue as President. Traci will continue as treasurer. Angelique is secretary. Kay will continue with social media and assume the vice president role.

The need for more youth participation in the club was identified. Kay will contact Arizona 4-H to inquire on local leadership. Vonnie is contacting Yavapai College. Kay is contacting Santori ranch.
